

Rail Europe is opening ticket sales for Spain's new affordable, high-speed train, OUIGO

Paris, France – 4 January 2021 –Rail Europe is opening ticket sales for the new OUIGO high-speed train network in Spain. The network will serve the cities of Madrid, Barcelona, Zaragoza and Tarragona from 10 May 2021 onwards. The tickets that are being sold as of now are for circulations between 10 May 2021 and 11 December 2021. The price competitive tickets offered by OUIGO will give everyone the opportunity to travel more frequently by high-speed train, the most sustainable means of mass transportation, with prices starting from €9.

Rail Europe is releasing tickets for the new affordable, high-speed train in Spain, for travel between 10 May 2021 and 11 December 2021. OUIGO will be providing daily connections between Madrid and Barcelona while also serving the cities of Zaragoza and Tarragona. Future travellers will enjoy the advantages of taking affordable trips in comfortable double-deck trains, the first trains to operate at high speed between Spain's two largest cities.

Customers are now able to make their first reservations and purchase OUIGO tickets at very attractive prices, below current observed market rates in Spain.

"We are delighted to launch the bookings for Spain's new price competitive, high-speed train. Rail Europe is dedicated to playing its part in providing accessible options for clean mobility, and the new OUIGO network will allow many more people to travel around the country by train, a form of transport that emits low CO2 emissions," says Dâu-Khôi Nguyễn, Rail Europe President and CEO.

In the months following the start of ticket sales, deployment of the OUIGO network will continue in Spain to allow high-speed travel to Valencia, Alicante, Cordoba, Seville and Malaga.

In Spain, Rail Europe already offers tickets for thousands of different routes between all cities in the country. All of them can be booked on www.raileurope.com.
